

2016 Year of the Fire Monkey

2016 is the Chinese Year of the Monkey and runs from February 8th, 2016 up to January 27th, 2017. This year belongs to the element Fire. And the Chinese lucky color for 2016 is symbolized by color Red. Fire Monkey year 2016 is time to take action.

Full of strength and determination, Fire Monkeys are excellent at not only setting goals, but in meeting them as well. The positive and negative qualities of the Monkey Year culminate in a year that anything can happen. The influence of the Monkey puts everything into flux. Things will get accomplished, but largely through personal and individual efforts.

The Monkey increases communication, humor and wit, helping us get through stressful times with grace and ease. Business flourishes and risks tend to pan out. The Monkey's gift is the ability to find unconventional solutions to old problems. Daring to be different can lead to success.

Everyone needs to re-think their fitness program, diet and health plan. If you don't have one, you definitely need to instigate some form of regular physical activity this year. It is a great stress reliever. The body was designed to move! Honor it!

Although a lively, optimistic and progressive year where finances, politics, and real estate should see an upturn, business decisions made this year should be based on fact, not emotion. Nothing this year should be taken for granted, whether politically, financially, professionally, domestically or emotionally.

Now is the time of courage, action and true devotion to even the wildest of schemes, a time to start new endeavors, for they are destined to succeed under Monkey's influence. This is a year to move forward, make strides, and stretch out for what may lay ahead. Run with ideas, embrace the inventive, and don't look back.

This year will reward the individual effort, and those who place their trust in the group collective will face disappointment.

Amazing Year for: Rats, Dragons, Monkeys – brings charm and confidence. Unstable, but dynamic!

Positive Year for: Goats, Rabbits, Ox – improvement in all areas of life. Progress finally!

Exciting Year for: Roosters, Horses – Tricky situations abound. Enjoy the stimulation!

Complex Year for: Tigers, Snakes, Boars, Dogs – strong focus and objectivity brings the best results.
